Sa muvhuso, we will continue to host events of this nature uri vhathu vha zwi divhe zwauri the freedom we are enjoying today did not come easily.

When we celebrate this day, ri fanela u humbula uri hu na vhathu vhe vha lovha while fighting for our freedom. It is also a day on which we reflect and assess the progress ye ya vha hone u bva nga 1994.

What is interesting is that fhanu South Africa ri na constitution ine ya vha ya khwinesa compared na manwe mashango. Constitution yashu i amba uri everyone has basic human rights. We must see to it that dzi rights dzashu a dzi khou abusiwa ngauri mulayo a u imi nazwo.

The Bill of Rights also states that we all have rights fhedzi rights hedzi dzi tshimbila na dzi responsibility. These rights include Equality, Human Dignity, Freedom of Movement and Residence, Language and Culture and The right to Life.

Rothe ri na mushumo wa u vhona uri freedom yashu na human rights zwi protecthiwe. I know that a lot of work is being done to protect our freedom, the rights of women, children and the general public by the law enforcement agencies. Kha ri thusane na mapholisa u vhona uri vhane vha khou abusa freedom na dzi rights dza vhanwe vha phanishiwe nga mulayo.

Violence against children, women and any community member will never be tolerated in our democratic era. Let us all hold hands to make sure that people's rights and freedom are protected in a vigilant way.
